

the Editor of the Herald is ready to do all he can. Since the passage of the Anti Slavery Amendment scores say it is the law of the land to have Slavery abolished and freedom established let us accept of it, and do all we can to make this a free Country.

Yours in great haste

Dear Friend Garrison

Yours of yesterday is at hand, I have secured the Hall for the Eve of the 22. Have also been to Amherst and seen Mr Whittier. he says he has the inspiration of if his head is better he will unto a song, hymn or something for the occasion. for three weeks past he has suffered with a severe pain in the head. he will be present. there is good feeling here toward you and within a day or two Rev Mr Campbell who had to preach two sermons after your lecture before the Lyceum against heresy sent to me that he would join in the request
